

however, the crowds were not thrown against the flying wheels.

Exciting Time.

One touring car that cut into Broad and Sixth had an exciting time when a cannon cracker dropped into the lap of the chauffeur, sending him almost out of his seat when it exploded and causing his machine to swerve dangerously near a passing trolley car. A tiny blaze on the edge of the lap robe was quickly extinguished before the frightened women could jump. But all these incidents and things were merely a part of the fun. There was no attempt to do bodily harm, and what might have been serious accidents were due to the facility throwing and not to spiteful work.

And when the midnight hour tolled from tower clocks the echo was lifted up by the surging multitude that screamed a faraway toast was drunk, as saloon doors slammed, and bedlam reigned when the bells signaled the coming of the Prince of Peace.

CHRISTMAS IN RICHMOND TO-DAY

With All Work Suspended, the City Will Celebrate Generally, Remembering the Poor.

Santa Claus and Christmas—forever linked in the hearts and minds of millions of little people—are here to-day, the festive event to be celebrated in that peaceful and dignified fashion that characterized other days that are gone and are longed for. The coming of the Christmas-time was marked last night with a noisy blast, but the day will break with the weary thousands as usual.

There is no particular big feature for the day, outside of the home, where without exception the day will be a Christmas cheer. Work of all kinds, save that which is indispensable, will halt, and even while the city is making merry it will give some thought and food to the unfortunate and to the poverty-stricken whose lives will be brightened by a touch of human nature and kindness more beautiful than all the sacred memories which enshrine the day.

No Work This Day.

Banks, business houses, offices, stores, public buildings and shops of all descriptions will be closed. In the churches this morning there will be services and special music, and in the afternoon the crowds will turn out, hopeful that sunshine will lift the air and bless and warm them. While the colder is being carved little bands of the faithful will be moving about like angels, finding the poor and bringing something to cheer and make them feel that the birth of the Christ-child is marked by good and useful deeds.

The day for the annual homecoming of the trains will carry thousands there and bring others here, and around the fireside they will mingle and talk. The most pleasant of all festivities, this feature will spread comfort into many a home, the first meeting in years, if not the last.

Attractions of one kind or another have been provided for those who want to be amused, with amusements and night performances at the theatres, dances and parties for the society wing, and little gatherings which, after all, are the best. The city will offer something good and cheering, and in the afternoon and evening there will be the festive games, Christmas, for that matter, is the same the world over, and here at home there will be no exception to the rule. The rushing messenger boys, the hurrying of packages and the opening—it will be the same as in other years, with no signs of money, panic or financial distress. A prosperous season here will culminate in a feast of giving.

IN CITY CHURCHES

Services of Song and Praise to Be Held To-Day.

Christmas will be observed by services of praise and music in all of the Episcopal and Catholic churches to-day, while many of the other congregations will have services suitable to the occasion.

For months the choirs in all the churches have been practicing the most elaborate music which they will attempt during the year, and many a great pipe organ will roll out some anthem or hymn in celebration of the nativity this morning. In fact, in some of the churches the services will be principally of a musical character, for ever since the shepherds, watching over their flocks, burst into song at the sight of the morning star over Bethlehem, the anniversary of the greatest of Christmas gifts has been an occasion for songs of praise in churches of all denominations and creeds.

In Catholic Churches.

At St. Peter's Church the Christmas Day celebration will begin at 5 o'clock, when an elaborate musical program, under the direction of Miss Knudsen, will be followed by mass, which will be again sung at 10:30 A. M. Christmas hymns will be sung by the choir after early and late mass. The Rev. Father Bowler will be the celebrant.

The services at the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart will be of an even more elaborate character, a special choir of twenty picked male voices under Professor Philippe de Coster having been at work on the Christmas music for some time. Mass will be sung at 8 o'clock and again at 11. The cathedral altars will be elaborately decorated by the ladies of the Tabernacle and Sanctuary societies. Nearly 100 altar boys, under the direction of Mr. Charles Taylor, will take part in the celebration of Pontifical Mass at 11 o'clock to-day, when the ceremony will be under the direction of Rev. Father Scherer. The services of this church will be the most elaborate of the day, and a number of Christmas hymns will be sung after each service by a choir of forty boys.

In Episcopal Churches.

In the Episcopal churches there will also be services, usually of a musical character, at 11 A. M. St. Paul's Church has an elaborate plan for a musical service, with Mr. Jacob Reinhardt as organist and director. All of the other Episcopal churches will have services, usually of a musical character, at 11 A. M. St. Paul's Church has an elaborate plan for a musical service, with Mr. Jacob Reinhardt as organist and director. All of the other Episcopal churches will have services, usually of a musical character, at 11 A. M. St. Paul's Church has an elaborate plan for a musical service, with Mr. Jacob Reinhardt as organist and director. All of the other Episcopal churches will have services, usually of a musical character, at 11 A. M. St. Paul's Church has an elaborate plan for a musical service, with Mr. Jacob Reinhardt as organist and director. All of the other Episcopal churches will have services, usually of a musical character, at 11 A. M. St. Paul's Church has an elaborate plan for a musical service, with Mr. Jacob Reinhardt as organist and director. All of the other Episcopal churches will have services, usually of a musical character, at 11 A. M. St. Paul's Church has an elaborate plan for a musical service, with Mr. Jacob Reinhardt as organist and director. All of the other Episcopal churches

Very respectfully,
O. H. BERRY & CO.

will render services of a more or less imposing character at 11 A. M., and most of the church auditoriums have been tastefully dressed in Christmas greenery, and the sound of the Christmas music will be accompanied by the aroma of cedar.

While Christmas Day is not regularly provided for in the order of services of the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist churches, many of them will hold services of a character appropriate to the day. Methodists of the city will unite on three Christmas services in central locations, those of the south-west joining in a service at Laurel Street Church, those of the East End worshipping at Union Station, and all of the churches in the central part of the city uniting in a service at Centenary Church at 11 o'clock. At this latter service the Rev. G. C. Kelly, D. D., pastor of Broad Street Church, will be the preacher, and the musical program will be exceptionally attractive. Mr. Shepherd Webb, the organist and choir-master, will be in charge. Of the Presbyterian churches the only one that has announced a Christmas service is the Church of the Covenant, where services will take place in the new auditorium at 11 o'clock this morning. The Seventh Street Christian will render services of a more or less imposing character at 11 A. M., and most of the church auditoriums have been tastefully dressed in Christmas greenery, and the sound of the Christmas music will be accompanied by the aroma of cedar.

While Christmas Day is not regularly provided for in the order of services of the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist churches, many of them will hold services of a character appropriate to the day. Methodists of the city will unite on three Christmas services in central locations, those of the south-west joining in a service at Laurel Street Church, those of the East End worshipping at Union Station, and all of the churches in the central part of the city uniting in a service at Centenary Church at 11 o'clock. At this latter service the Rev. G. C. Kelly, D. D., pastor of Broad Street Church, will be the preacher, and the musical program will be exceptionally attractive. Mr. Shepherd Webb, the organist and choir-master, will be in charge. Of the Presbyterian churches the only one that has announced a Christmas service is the Church of the Covenant, where services will take place in the new auditorium at 11 o'clock this morning. The Seventh Street Christian

GOOD DINNERS FOR THEM

Christmas Cheer To-Day For Those Sick and Unfortunate.

Christmas will receive its due recognition in every one of the many charitable and public institutions around the city, in many the plans for

WHERE FLEET SPENDS CHRISTMAS

VIEW OF PORT OF SPAIN, TRINIDAD, WHERE THE FLEET ARRIVED MONDAY EVENING AND WILL SPEND NEARLY A WEEK.

Church and the First English Lutheran Church will also hold services of praise and recognition of the nativity of the Christ Child at this hour.

At the First English Lutheran Church this morning services will be held at 11 o'clock and the pastor, the Rev. J. J. Scherer, will preach. Special music will be a feature of the service. The program will be as follows:

Hymn—"O Come All Ye Faithful" (Adeste Fideles).

Gloria Patria (Bach).

Gloria in Excelsis (Old Chant).

Hallelujah (Bach).

To Deum in F (Dykes).

Hymn—"Hark, What Meaneth Those Holy Voices?"

Offertory—"Sing Alleluia Forth" (Dundley Book).

Hymn—"O, Little Town of Bethlehem."

Amen (Stainer).

BASKETS FOR THE POOR

No Person Will Go Hungry in Richmond on Christmas Day.

Never before have the poor of Richmond been so generously treated by the public as has been the case this Christmas, every destitute family in the city which applied to any of the churches or to any organized charity being supplied with a basket of food. There were a variety of the good things. No poor people in Richmond will go hungry to-day. Fifteen hundred families have been helped in this way, and in no other movement recently organized have the various charitable associations worked in so much harmony.

The Associated Charities, Lee Camp Auxiliary, the Elks, the Shriners, the Methodist Institute, the Bible Bryan Day Nursery, St. Anne's Society, the Salvation Army, and various churches of all denominations have taken part in the work, and the public has generously responded to the calls for funds until every needy family has been supplied. When these organizations had made up the lists of names to whom the baskets of Christmas charity would be furnished, a joint committee from them all, together with the officers of the Associated Charities, surveyed the field and compared the lists with a general list of 1,500 names, compiled by the visitors and by various churches.

Two hundred and eighty-five families, mostly timid and retiring people, unwilling to press forward with their demands upon the public, were found to be unprovided for. Two days ago the officers of the Associated Charities, appealed, through the daily papers, for funds to meet this emergency, and so generously has the demand been met that every one of these families received a basket yesterday afternoon. Every family making application has been supplied, and no questions have been asked as to the worthiness of the case, the only condition necessary to receive a Christmas basket being that the family is in need.

All the baskets have now been issued except those of the Salvation Army, for which tickets have been distributed.

the celebrations to-day being quite elaborate, and in nearly all cases centering around an elaborate Christmas dinner which will be a worthy feast of good things. At Lee Camp Soldiers' Home the old men will gather around the board this afternoon to discuss turkey and oysters, with various accessories, and will recall by contrast many of the marches and Federal prisons, where food was scarce and its quality poor. Many of the men are feeble and some are unable to come to the dining-room even with the help of crutches or a rolling chair, and for these there will be fruit that may be taken to the rooms and a variety of delicacies. A number of visitors are expected at the home throughout Christmas day, and the old men will be glad to see their friends.

At the City Home.

At the City Home there will be good cheer in plenty. Superintendent Davis says that it isn't often that the inmates have a really good time, but the Christmas dinner to-day will be complete, even to the traditional plum-pudding.

Santa Claus is expected to make a call at the City Home in person on Christmas afternoon after the midday dinner, and he has promised to distribute nuts and candy and fruits in abundance. Several members of the Committee on Relief of the Poor will be present to extend a welcome to Santa Claus when he calls.

At the State Penitentiary there will be a general cessation of labor, and some additions to the daily list of fare for the midday dinner. Superintendent Morgan will allow the men to spend the afternoon in singing, telling yarns, reading or writing letters home, and no mention will be made of making shoes throughout the day.

Nowhere with Christmas be more genuinely observed than at the various orphan asylums. Mrs. Gill, out at the Male Orphan Asylum, is planning to have a visit in person from Santa Claus one day this week, but the boys of the home will make things lively throughout the day, and in few private homes in Richmond will there be more genuine fun than these youngsters will have to-day.

Christmas Tree.

At the home of the Female Humane

At the home of the Female Humane

At the home of the Female Humane

At the home of the Female Humane

At the home of the Female Humane

At the home of the Female Humane

At the home of the Female Humane

At the home of the Female Humane

At the home of the Female Humane

At the home of the Female Humane

At the home of the Female Humane

At the home of the Female Humane

At the home of the Female Humane

CHANGE IN BUREAU HEADS

CAPTAIN WINSLOW.

things to eat and drink. An orchestra in an adjoining room, made sweet music as the dinner progressed. There were the usual Christmas decorations, consisting of palms, mistletoe and holly.

A number of prominent members of the club acted as a reception committee to receive the out-of-town members, and all who went received a hearty welcome.

Up to last year each member had been allowed to bring one city friend, but owing to the rapid growth of the club only resident and consistent members—those on the "waiting list"—the ministers of the city and a few other distinguished Richmond people have been invited on the last two seasons. The "waiting list" now contains the names of about seventy, whose applications for membership are in.

The party filed into the dining-room at 8:30 o'clock. On the tables were whole roast turkeys, giblets, Smithfield hams, oysters, salads and all the tempting viands usually spread upon such occasions, while Westmoreland apple toddy and egg-nog flowed in the greatest abundance.

When the party had done justice to the dinner there were a number of impromptu speeches and songs, which tended to enliven the occasion, and to round it out as one of the happiest in the history of the famous old club.

Association, on Seventh Street, and at the Methodist Orphanage, where Dr. Maslin will represent Santa Claus, there will be an abundance of good cheer and revelry.

The boys out at the Masonic Home will gather around a Christmas tree at 8:30 o'clock this afternoon for a glorious time, to which all the friends of the home are invited.

None of those who are in the various homes and institutions have been forgotten in the distribution, and many persons will visit these places to-day, especially the asylums where there are children, to give them a word of Christmas cheer and greeting.

GOT HOLIDAY AT LAST

School Children Run Joyfully to Streets When Clocks Struck 12.

With the first stroke of the noon hour yesterday thousands of school children jumped, shouted, screamed joyfully and fled to the streets. Under the ruling of the City School Board the day was not to begin until 1 o'clock, and this meant that the children were to have a day of rest, and a day of greater speed than that of the bells of the thousands who fretted because they had to work on the eve of Christmas. The holidays will continue until January 2d.

Though no record was available, it was said to be evident that the attendance yesterday was not up to the usual high standard. Youngsters who did report for duty made by good soldiers, and were not in the humor for work, and little girls peeped out of the windows and watched the chimney tops for the coming of Santa Claus. The children who did not come to school will continue until January 2d.

At Nicholson School, in Fulton, of which Professor M. L. Bonham, Jr., is principal, classes for the holidays yesterday were rendered. The primary grade exercises were held at 9 o'clock A. M., and those of the grammar grade at 10:30 o'clock. After the exercises by the school, a most interesting and varied program was rendered by the pupils.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

At Nicholson School, in Fulton, of which Professor M. L. Bonham, Jr., is principal, classes for the holidays yesterday were rendered. The primary grade exercises were held at 9 o'clock A. M., and those of the grammar grade at 10:30 o'clock. After the exercises by the school, a most interesting and varied program was rendered by the pupils.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus; Mr. Reginald Walker and Miss Kelley; recess solo, school, Miss Adele Ogilvie, director; Miss Edith Hewitt, accompanist.

Processional school: "Christmas Bells," ten boys; "Christmas Has Come to Last," Marjorie Lane; "Christmas Problem," Yella Goldstein; song, "The Christmas," school; "Santa Claus," ten boys; solo, Thomas Cox; "A Note to Santa Claus," Nita Hudson; "A Christmas Precaution," Frances Garlick; "Christmas," Dolly; Virginia Thornton; solo, Gertrude Doane; "Gifts to Santa Claus," Isabelle Fulton; "Tommy's Reflections," Earl Wood; violin solo, Margaret Schremp; "Christmas Song," Nita Hudson; solo, Allen Thompson; "How Is Santa's Hair Kept White?" Hazel Pettus; song, "Hear the Glad Bells," school; "The Art of Being Good," Philip Meyer; "A Christmas Eve Thought," Frances Lindsey; "Christmas Candles," ten girls; "Jack's Combination," Nita Hudson; "Stockings to Wear," Virginia Johnson; mandolin and piano duet, Annie and Clifford; Green; "Nita's Song," Caroline Pettus; "If You Are Good," Ella Thomas; song, six girls; "Who Is Santa Claus?" school; "Santa Claus Is Coming," school; Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus